

Provides information about the history and current status of the Herbarium of the Botanical Garden of the Chelyabinsk State University based on charges of wild and cultivated plants from southern Urals. The Herbarium has about 25000 sheets of vascular plants.