

The results of the study of morphometric parameters sage glandular of Salvia glutinosa L. Four groups of system indicators. Most signs are stable; the number of side branches, the number of escapes. In the increasingly varied indicators such as the length of the inflorescence, the length of the stem leaves.

branches, the number of escapes. In the increasingly varied indicators such as the length of the inflorescence, the length of the stem leaves.