

Data on the phytocenosis distribution and structure and the stands of trees composition of some associations of broad-leaved forests of South Urals Reserve are presented.